

RE: Challenge of the CBA to the Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. I strongly oppose any weakening of Indiana's law. My name is on the no-call list because I want privacy in my home. Companies I have business relationships with will be contacted by me in my own time and by my choice. They are interested in their welfare, not mine.